» THREE FEATURES

Over the decades, three strong academic disciplines have emerged as defining features of ZJNU.

1. Mathematics

ZJNU's Mathematics discipline ranks in the top 0.2% globally according to ESI, placing 86th worldwide and 12th among universities on the Chinese mainland. It received a Level A rating in the Times Higher Education China Subject Ratings 2023.

As one of the university's earliest established subjects, the Mathematics department now includes four faculties and six research institutes. It boasts 120 faculty members, including three Global Highly Cited Researchers and three listed among the World's Top 2% Scientists.

2. Education studies

Education studies represent a core strength among ZJNU's foundational disciplines. Currently, 50% of principals and outstanding teachers in Zhejiang Province are ZJNU alumni, along with 70% of the principals of the best kindergartens. Over 210,000 graduates are contributing to the education sector. The university is widely recognized as the "cradle for nurturing education talents."

3. African studies

In 2007, ZJNU founded the Institute of African Studies (IASZNU), the first comprehensive institute for African studies among Chinese universities. It has been recognized as the "Best Regional Research Center Affiliated to a University" by the Global Think Tank Report of the University of Pennsylvania.

In 2011, ZJNU launched the China-Africa Think Tanks Forum, which has since become a prominent platform for academic and policy dialogue between China and Africa.

» GLOBAL ENGAGEMENT
